Mexican Cooking Fiesta

Dinner Party

Your group will be treated to private cooking lessons in the comfort of your own home. You and your group will enjoy private cooking lessons performed by a professional cooking instructor. The menu will follow a Mexican theme.

First Lesson- Appetizers

The chef will direct your group in preparing salsa, guacamole and chips. You will be provided with all the ingredients necessary to make your own salsa and guacamole.

Second Lesson- Margaritas

You and your friends will assist the chef in preparing Watermelon Margaritas. Your group will enjoy these beverages throughout the evening as you learn to prepare many different Mexican Dishes.

Third Lesson- Second Course

Once you have had the opportunity to enjoy the refreshments prepared in the first lesson, you will begin the evening's third lesson. In this lesson the group will be instructed in the finer points of preparing the Chef's Special Jalapeno Poppers. You will then have the opportunity to sample and enjoy your creation.

Fourth Lesson- Main Course

Now that your group is schooled in the finer points of preparing your own appetizers, it is time to prepare for the Main Course. Your instructor will assist and direct you in preparing Fresh Garden Vegetable Burritos and Chipotle Honey Chicken Burritos. The main course will also include Black Bean and Cilantro Rice, prepared by your group.

Fifth Lesson- Dessert

What would any meal be without dessert? The instruction continues after dinner as your cooking instructor shows your group how to prepare one of his special Mexican Desserts.

*It will be the client's responsibility to purchase the alcohol necessary to prepare the Margaritas.
